"Dufour 54 “Violante” – Bareboat sailing for up to 15 guests along the Tuscan coast"
Sail the timeless beauty of the Tuscan coastline aboard the Dufour 54 “Violante” (2026) — a spacious, modern sailing yacht that brings together performance, comfort, and freedom. Departing from Marina di Scarlino, this elegant vessel is available for bareboat charter and is licensed to welcome up to 15 guests, making it an exceptional option for large groups or families looking for a true Mediterranean escape.

From bow to stern, “Violante” impresses with her generous exterior layout: a wide cockpit perfect for long lunches at anchor, a forward sunbathing area for lazy afternoons, and plenty of open space to enjoy the sea breeze at your own pace. Inside, the atmosphere is bright and welcoming, with large windows, a spacious saloon, and a smart layout offering 6 double cabins + 1 additional, 4 electric toilets, and a convertible saloon table that adds further flexibility to accommodate guests.

The onboard equipment is designed for both performance and comfort. Highlights include electric winches, electric anchor windlass, autopilot, bow thruster, GPS plotter in cockpit, as well as a 200 l/h watermaker, solar panels, and inverter, ensuring excellent autonomy during your cruise. Outdoor features like the bimini, sprayhood, swim platform, cockpit shower, cockpit BBQ, and dinghy with outboard make life at anchor just as enjoyable as life under sail.

Built for easy handling and spacious living, “Violante” is more than a sailboat — she’s your floating home, a stylish base for unforgettable adventures along one of Italy’s most beautiful coastlines.

Set your course towards the Tuscan Archipelago, with islands like Elba, Giglio and Capraia, where crystal-clear coves, charming harbors and wild landscapes await. Each day brings a new anchorage, a new memory, and a new horizon.

Book your charter aboard Dufour 54 “Violante” now — and experience Tuscany from the sea, as it was meant to be discovered.
