Beschrijving

The Franchini 41L is a premium Italian-built cruising sailboat and motorsailer first introduced in the early 1990s by the esteemed Franchini Yachts shipyard. Designed in collaboration with Roberto Starkel, the "L" version stands for "Light" (or enclosed deck saloon layout), separating it from its sister model, the center-cockpit 41S. While the 41S features a traditional low deckhouse, the 41L introduces an elevated deck saloon design with large panoramic windows that maximize natural interior light and provide a sheltered, motorsailer-style covered cockpit area.
